Communion Antiphon

Rev 22:17, 19:9

The Spirit and the Bride say, “Come.” How happy, those invited to the wedding feast of the Lamb!

Canticle of Revelation

Rev 19:6c–7a, 7b–8a, 11ab, 13, 16; 21:1–2, 3b–5a, 6; 22:17, 20 (See Performance Notes)

for the marriage of the Lamb has come, † and his bride has made herself ready; *
to her it has been granted to be clothed with fine linen, bright and pure.”

Then I saw heaven opened, and there was a white horse! *
Its rider is called Faithful and True.

He is clothed in a robe dipped in blood, *
and his name is called The Word of God.

On his robe he has a name inscribed, *
“King of kings and Lord of lords.”

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; †
and I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, *
coming down out of heaven from God, ’ prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

“See, the home of God is among mortals. †
He will dwell with them as their God; *
they will be his peoples, ’ and God himself will be with them;
be will wipe every tear from their eyes. †
Death will be no more; *
mourning and crying and pain will be no more, ’ for the first things have passed away.”
And the one who was seated on the throne said, *
“See, I am making all things new.”

Then he said to me, “It is done! †
I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. *
To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life.”

The Spirit and the bride say, “Come.” *
And let everyone who hears say, “Come.”

And let everyone who is thirsty come. *
Let anyone who wishes take the water of life as a gift.

The one who testifies to these things says, †
“Surely I am coming soon.” *

Amen. Come, Lord Jesus!

Doxology: Give glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: * as it was in the beginning, is now, * and will be for ever. Amen.
